His Journey

You lived your life in such a way
that all of us could see,
How much you truly sacrificed
for the Ram Family.

You gave your time, you gave your strength
You gave your heart and soul,
To make this campus the best it could be,
I know this was your goal.

You marched in the band;
You were an actor on stage,
Lord knows, you stepped in the shows.
How you managed to do it, all that and then some
My heavens! Only God must know!

And then, when it seemed as if life posed no threats,
She dealt us a crooked hand,
And tried to rip you from our breast,
But God said, "Oh, no. Not this man."

For two years your fight to live was unyielding,
You were determined not to miss a thing;
Until a trumpet was sounded and God made his decree,
"Sweet Gabriel, bring him home on your wing."

And although you are gone and we miss you so,
We understand that you wanted to rest.
You fought a good fight, your battle is won,
Now take your place with the best.

You will always be with us, through us you will live,
Through our mouths we will praise your good nature
I will never forget you, my brother, my friend.
God willing, we'll meet in the rapture.

Poem written by Soror Avis Bond

Racing Toward the Finish Line

History of the Class of 1995 Winston-Salem State University

We entered Winston-Salem State University proudly in the fall of 1991...a diverse class of eager students with open hearts and minds, not knowing the joys, the disappointments, the opportunities, and the challenges that awaited us. Realizing that great minds do great things, we elected Miss Joelle Davis as class president. She had an equally capable cabinet: Miss Jill Ramsey - vice president; Miss Takesha Patterson - recording secretary; Miss Mia Peterson - corresponding secretary; Miss LaShele Lawson - treasurer; Miss Tyhemba Hunt - sergeant-at-arms; Miss Jenette Crutchfield - chaplain; and Miss Ebony Moore and Miss Yolanda Motley as class queens. Class representatives were Miss Seronda Altman and Mr. Ninh Smith.

Because we are a distinctive class, we selected the unusual combination of royal purple and forest green for class colors and a statement that reflects our philosophy for the class motto: Looking toward our future, learning from our past. Dr. Betty Alexander accepted the responsibility for providing guidance for us as class advisor.

The first year was filled with many dynamic events. Guest performances offered the sultry sounds of Shirley Murdock, the upbeat rhythms of Jodeci and the exciting steps of Shakisha, an African dance troupe. We provided our own entertainment with the productions of "Showtime at WSSU," a major class fundraiser that left few empty seats. Other class activities included seminars and forums with university administrators and events such as Freshman Fun Day and a breakfast for freshmen and their parents.

As we ended our first year at WSSU, we reaffirmed our confidence in Miss Joelle Davis by electing her to a second term. Mr. Ninh Smith was elected vice president, and Miss Angeline Cotton was voted Miss Sophomore.

Our second year featured the music of Naughty By Nature and Leaders of the New School and the comedic talents of Bernie Mack and Teddy Carpenter. We took first place for our banner against drunk driving, adopted a family for a special service project, and sponsored Sophomore Fun Day, a class variety show and a host of fundraisers.

Entering our third year, we passed the gavel to Miss Angeline Cotton to serve as our president, with Miss Tyhemba Hunt as vice president and Miss Corine Warren as Miss Sophomore. Homecoming entertainment included comedian Adelle Givens and the music of Intro, Black Moon and Lords of the Underground. Class accomplishments included second place for our alumni banner, Christmas carolling at Brenner Children's Hospital, participation in the Toys for Tots campaign, adoption of a family for Thanksgiving, and doughnut and hotdog sale fundraisers.

The year ended with the selection of Miss Kimberly Alexander as Miss WSSU. Miss Claudia Taylor was elected to serve as our president, Miss Takesha Patterson as vice president and Miss Sabrina McDonald as our class queen. Seven other student activists rounded out the cabinet: Miss Aleiah Shabazz as recording secretary, Miss Angeline Cotton as corresponding secretary, Miss Corine Warren as parliamentarian, Miss Utasha Watkins as historian, Miss Mia Peterson as chaplain, Mr. William Harrison as treasurer and Miss LaShele Lawson as administrative assistant. Mr. Tommy Tyson, Miss Shelly Goines and Miss Tyhemba Hunt completed the administration as class representatives.

The Class of 1995 has many reasons to be proud. One of our own, Miss Joelle Davis, has earned her place in WSSU history by being the first student to serve as SGA president as a junior and senior. We have been instrumental in the university's decision to require a Black studies course for all students, the passage of the North Carolina Bond Referendum, naming of Wilson Hall, and the establishment of a university escort service. In addition, we have witnessed the end of an era -- the closing and demolition of Kennedy Dining Hall and Bickett Hall, a structure that served as the first Black hospital in Winston-Salem -- to make way for an imposing new Student Services Complex.

As we depart from Winston-Salem State University and prepare to serve our community, we will be eternally grateful for the education that we have received. We look toward our future, having learned from the past, and we will never forget those who helped us along the way. The fire of the Class of 1995 is one that will never be extinguished, and we challenge others to keep their torches burning.

Colophon

Volume 60 of the Winston-Salem State University Ram was published by Delmar Printing and Publishing in Charlotte, North Carolina using offset lithography printing processes. Our publishing representative was Liza Wearn. The trim size of the 1995 Ram is 9" x 12". The book was printed with 100% black ink on 240 pages.

The Ram was Smyth sewn and rounded and backed on 160 point handers board. The cover is silver fiber material with red silk screening ink applied to the back and front lids and spine. The end sheets were printed with different designs front and back in black and red ink.

All black and white and color photographs were laser scanned individually. All color portraits were shot by Beaufort Bailey on 70 mm Kodak Vericolor III film and printed on Fuji color papers. All other pictures were shot with 35 mm Fuji film and printed on Kodak papers.

Yearbook pages were composed on desktop publishing equipment including personal computers and PageMaker software. The Ram had a press run of 1,500 copies and was prepared by a volunteer staff selected from a list of applicants. Opinions expressed are those of the individual authors and are not necessarily those of the students, administration, faculty or staff.

Winston-Salem State University's colors are red and white. The mascot is the ram.
